

WARN RUSSIA 'STAY OUT OF HEMISPHERE'

About Town

And Country

By TIMOTHEUS T.

AG DEPT.: I had the same thing happen once upon a time when I was a bit more agriculturally minded than I am now when it's an effort for me when I go out to get my lone mode.

It's those potato plant tops with those tomato-like seed pods in them. I hadn't seen them in a long time but Floyd Jennings of Ledford brought some in yesterday. He had several of them in his garden.

These pop up now and then but are unusual.

P. S. Since this was written Mrs. Lorene Cowger of Galatia Route 2 has brought in a sample of the same oddity.

AG FAIR DEPT.: Noticed one good thing, one bad thing out at the Saline county fairgrounds, where the annual Saline county fair will be held the week of August 2.

The good thing is that sanitary toilets are being installed. That means you can go in and find a flushable stool, et cetera, et cetera.

This is a much-needed improvement that the fair patrons will appreciate.

Bad thing is the way the fence was set up the night of the Shrine circus. Profits derived go to take care of crippled children in the Shrine's hospital but some people were either thoughtless or just didn't care on that score. Anyhow, the vandalism was premeditated because the wrong-doers had to bring some wire cutters with them.

MORE AG DEPT.: Sometimes too much ambition can get one overloaded and that's what happened to Mrs. Cecelia Shetler's June apple tree.

I went out Saturday morning to her address, 1008 South Ledford street, to inspect the tree, and I saw what I went to see.

Now Mrs. Shetler's June apple tree is an ordinary, mature fruit tree and it has June apples all over it, just about ripe.

But up there high in the center of the tree is one single branch, not very big around, that got so ambitious it is overloaded. This branch is not more than three feet long and I counted fifty-five good-sized apples on it. So there's at least that many as some could have been hidden from view about 15 feet up.

I also noticed that Mrs. Shetler is growing some peanuts in her garden. Hadn't seen any growing in town here before.

And while we're on the subject of things growing, have you noticed that hollyhock at Vine and Locust in front of Skaggs electric? In spite of the hustle and bustle and the fact that it's on its own and must be living a hard life, it's right now blooming in all its glory.

Anti-Communists Set Up Rebel Guatemala Gov't

Communique Claims Invasion Has Overrun Cities

TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras (UP)—Anti-Communist forces today set up a rebel government for Guatemala in an unidentified captured city.

Its leaders issued a communique stating that the invasion of the country and the march on its capital at Guatemala City by forces under command of anti-Red leader Col. Carlos Castillo Armas, has overrun "several important cities" and is proceeding against little opposition.

The anti-Communist junta claimed no serious armed clashes have developed, because it commands the support of 90 per cent of the Guatemalan people.

Reports that the "invasion" is being carried out with little or no fighting were confirmed in Washington where the State Department said officially the situation does not for the present, necessitate the evacuation of the 1,200 Americans in the Central American republic.

Rebels Ask Recognition

The anti-Communist coordination committee, in the new capital, said the armed forces under Castillo have appealed for recognition as belligerents under international law.

An appeal was made to the people and the Army to join the uprising aimed at ousting the Red-tainted regime of President Jacobo Arbenz Guzman.

Authoritative sources here said President Arbenz had declared martial law throughout Guatemala in face of the progressing uprising. Guatemalan labor leaders were reported ordering truck drivers, railway workers and farmers to mobilize for defense of Guatemala City.

Government Belittles Invasion

The Guatemalan government belittled the effects of the four-day old invasion thus far but admitted that Guatemala City, bombed and strafed at least three times since Friday, was the invaders' immediate target.

Leaders of the insurgents predicted victory over President Jacobo Arbenz Guzman's Communist-influenced regime within the next 36 hours. They said rebel leader Col. Carlos Castillo Armas was inside Guatemala and would set up his provisional government before nightfall.

Winnipeg radio station CKY said it learned in a recorded telephone interview with Mac Bannell of the National Broadcasting Co. that rebel forces were in the outskirts of the capital and that "considerable fighting is going on."

Guatemala City was blacked out for a few minutes Sunday night before Foreign Minister Guillermo Toriello made a nationwide broadcast to the people about a French resolution put before the United Nations Security Council in New York.

The resolution called for an immediate end to any action likely to cause bloodshed in Guatemala and urged all U.N. members to refrain from giving assistance to either side.

Bandwagon Parade Today Opens Big Week at Eldorado

Today is Bandwagon Day in Eldorado and everything is in readiness for a big parade through the downtown business district and a huge rally at the high school.

The parade is scheduled to start at 6:30 and the meeting at the high school will start about 8 p. m.

Today is the beginning of a big week in Eldorado as the citizens unite to keep their community development program in operation. "Keep The Wheels Rolling" is the theme of this week's activities and wagon wheels, symbolic of the theme, are prominent in the decorations in the business area.

At least 100 floats are expected in this evening's parade, along with marching units and bands.

John Nuveen, chairman of the board of directors of John Nuveen and Co., Chicago, will be the principal speaker at the high school.

A crew from CBS-TV will be in Eldorado several days this week filming the activities for a nationwide TV show, Edward R. Murrow's "See It Now" program.

Steve Mitchell, chairman of the Saline County Democratic committee, will head the group from Saline county that plans to attend.

SOLOM KILLS SELF—Sen. Lester C. Hunt (D., Wyo.) is dead of a self-inflicted bullet wound in the head, according to Washington, D. C., police. Senator Hunt, who recently announced he would not run for re-election, was found slumped in a chair in his office, a 22 caliber rifle beside him. Police who rushed him to the hospital in a futile attempt to save his life, attribute the tragedy to his concern over his health. (NEA Telephoto)

Record Heat Grips Midwest Second Week

By United Press
Summer officially began today, but the dying spring has already given a blazing preview of hot weather.

A record-breaking heat wave gripped the Midwest for the second week, floods forced hundreds to flee their homes in Iowa, and storms and tornadoes ripped the nation's midsection on the last day of spring.

The Iowa floods, following a week of torrential rains, were believed to have ruined millions of dollars worth of crops. A state of emergency was ordered at Sioux City, Iowa, and the state weather forecast was for more rain.

3 Die in Storms
At least three persons were killed Sunday as a result of the storms and floods.

Alfred Anderson, 18, drowned while riding a horse across the swollen Iowa river. A lightning bolt killed Raymond Rhode, 37, Laurel, Neb., and injured five others when it struck a pit at the Yankton, S. D., Speedway. Lightning also killed Mrs. Heston Murphy, 40, Virginia, Ill.

The marathon heat wave showed no signs of making a quick surrender to cool air from the west and north. Ninety-degree readings were the rule from Nebraska, Iowa and Illinois to the Gulf of Mexico. Chicago, which has endured over-90 temperatures for 10 straight days, expected to tie an all-time city heat record with more of the same today.

3 Twisters Hit Nebraska
The battle between cool and hot air produced at least three tornadoes in Nebraska and near-tornado winds in Ohio Sunday.

The Nebraska twisters apparently did little damage. Heavy rains and 50-mile-an-hour winds swept the Chicago area, disrupting a 65-yacht race on Lake Michigan. The yacht Aloha capsized and exploded, sending five men into the water. All five were rescued.

Sam Keiffer, 67, Shawneetown, Dies

Sam Keiffer, 67, resident of Shawneetown, died in the Eldorado nursing home Sunday morning.

New Presbyterian Moderator Assisted Guerilla Forces Against Japs in War II

By ROBERT L. ULLRICH
United Press Staff Correspondent
CARBONDALE, Ill. (UP)—A former missionary who assisted guerilla forces in collecting information on Japanese troops in Thailand during World War II is the new head of the Illinois Synod of the Presbyterian Church, U.S.A.

The Rev. John S. Holladay of Cairo, who served 13 years in Thailand as a missionary before World War II, was elected moderator of the 174,000 members of the Synod in Illinois during its annual meeting here last week.

As moderator, he presided over the conference sessions and during the coming year will visit local presbyteries and churches upon their invitation.

The Rev. Mr. Holladay, 54, escaped from Thailand with his wife and two of their children, who were 11 and six years old, just ahead of Jap troops after Pearl Harbor in December, 1941.

Red China Lists 15 Americans as Believed Dead

Statement Gives Status on Most of 83 Being Detained

GENEVA (UP)—Red China told the United States today that 14 U. S. airmen and one American missionary, among 83 Americans the State Department claims are being detained by the Reds, are either dead or presumed dead.

Fifteen airmen were admitted to be in jail.

Chinese delegates, in their fourth meeting with American representatives at the Geneva Far Eastern conference, also handed over a statement on the status of most of the others.

They said 30 are in prison, 12 are unaccounted for. Two were claimed to have left Red China June 18. Additional information was asked on two others. Two were claimed to have voluntarily withdrawn requests for exit visas and one was claimed never to have been detained.

The United States has been attempting through contacts with Communist Chinese leaders in Geneva, to obtain the release of Americans either jailed or denied exit permits by the Red Peiping regime.

Earlier the United States listed 83 persons in these categories. The Communists reported the deaths during the course of the fourth meeting here between representatives of the two delegations to the Geneva Far Eastern conference.

U. S. Lets 15 Go

The United States informed the Communist representatives that exit permits have been granted to 15 Chinese students whose return to their Asiatic homeland previously had been refused by U. S. immigration authorities.

U. S. Ambassador to Czechoslovakia, U. Alexis Johnson, acting head of the United States delegation, had asked the Red Chinese for the release of 54 American civilians and 29 American military personnel.

The Chinese replied with a report that 11 naval airmen aboard two U. S. Navy planes which had crashed off the China coast "were not captured by our side." The Chinese spokesman said the airmen were "presumed dead."

The Chinese said three other airmen, believed to have been captured by the Chinese during the Korean War, also were dead.

3 Parachute to Death
The spokesman said China told the United States delegates that P. E. Voorhis, H. D. Weese and A. D. Hart Jr., (no ranks or hometowns available) had parachuted over Antung and "died from their fatal crash to the earth."

The 15th person listed by the Chinese as dead was W. L. Winter, a Protestant missionary. Winter, the Chinese said, was arrested on charges of espionage and "died of illness on Feb. 27, 1951 in Kwantung province."

Two other Americans, listed by the United States, as among those denied exit permits were said by the Chinese spokesman to have left China two days ago. They were Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Christian. The Chinese said they sailed from Shanghai on June 18.

GOP Contest In Maine Primary

PORTLAND, Me. (UP)—Maine Republicans vote today either to renominate Sen. Margaret Chase Smith, a foe of Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.), or choose McCarthy admirer Robert L. Jones as their nominee.

The primary contest has been hailed in some quarters as a test of the public's attitude toward the controversial junior senator from Wisconsin.

"We had only the clothes on our backs and whatever we could carry or hire carried by natives," he said, recalling the flight to Rangoon where the family waited 19 days for a boat to Calcutta, India.

During the Rangoon stay the anese bombed the city on 16 of the days—sometimes four raids a day.

He took over a church in Marion, Ill., after returning to the United States and in May, 1945, was called to Washington and asked to work for the Office of Strategic Services collecting information in Thailand behind Japanese lines.

"They asked me because I knew the people and the language," the Rev. Mr. Holladay said. "I was a civilian working for the OSS. I did not participate in military training of the guerillas."

"My main assignment was to collect information and send it out by radio," he said.

"ARMY OF LIBERATION" INVADES GUATEMALA—News map indicates points where an anti-Communist "Army of Liberation" under command of exiled Col. Carlos Castillo Armas made its first strikes in Guatemala. Puerto Barrios is reported captured by an air-sea attack mounted from Hog Island, off the Honduran coast, and San Jose, second principal port, has also been attacked. Guatemala's capital, Guatemala City, has been bombed and the key rail center of Zacapa has reportedly been seized by the invaders. Uprisings are reported at Retalhuleu and Quezaltenango.

J. A. Blackman, Former Resident, Dies in Florida

James A. Blackman, 70, Lakeland, Fla., died Sunday at 11:45 p. m. in the Morrell hospital in Lakeland.

He was the uncle of Robert Blackman of this city.

To Begin Test of Fourth Unit At Joppa Plant

JOPPA, Ill. (UP)—The fourth generating unit of the Joppa steam power plant on the Ohio River here will start Tuesday on a 10-day test run. A Bechtel Corp. spokesman said today.

Unit 4 will join three other units "on the line" in producing power for use by the atomic energy plant near Paducah, Ky., after the test run and inspections are completed. Each of the plant's six units is rated for 156,000 kilowatts and the total rating is 937,000 kilowatts.

Work has moved ahead rapidly the past three weeks on erection of steel for boilers and coal bunkers on units 5 and 6. The smokestack the final two units will share is one-third complete.

Bechtel is building the plant which will be operated by Electric Energy, Inc.

Order New Band Uniforms at HTHS

Announcement was made today by R. L. Foster, principal of the Harrisburg Township high school that 90 new band uniforms have been ordered. The decision was made final Friday by the board of education.

The uniforms will be complete with coat, trousers, cap, plume and citation cord, and the new colors will be gray with purple and white trim. The outfits will be paid for from earnings of the band plus funds supplied by the school board. They are expected to arrive around the first of September.

Band members are being measured for the uniforms today and tomorrow, and band director Marshall Cothran reminds students to come to the bandroom of the school for measurement.

Mormon Descendants Present Statue of Lincoln to Illinois

PETERSBURG, Ill. (UP)—Descendants of the founders of the Mormon religion today presented a statue of Abraham Lincoln to the state of Illinois, which drove out their forefathers a century ago.

Members of the Church of Latter Day Saints made a pilgrimage from Salt Lake City, Utah, to be here for dedication of a nine-foot, bronze statue of Lincoln at New Salem State Park.

Nicholas G. Morgan Sr., president of the National Society of Sons of Utah Pioneers, was scheduled to present the gift to Illinois Gov. William G. Stratton in the afternoon ceremonies.

Morgan said in a pre-dedication statement that "the unpleasant memories of the past should be forgiven and forgotten."

"The future greatness of our country," he said, "depends largely on our ability to unify the ideals and objectives of our people."

The statue, work of Salt Lake City sculptor Avarad Fairbanks, stands in the state park which is a restoration of the village of New Salem, where Lincoln spent most of his twenties.

It was here that Lincoln clerked and surveyed land from 1831 to 1837. It was here, too, if you are to believe legend—and many historians don't—that Lincoln met and loved Ann Rutledge.

One year after Lincoln left here to make his name in politics, Joseph Smith and members of the Mormon Church he founded were driven out of Missouri, and moved to Illinois.

Smith and his followers settled in 1839 at a spot on the Mississippi river about 100 miles northwest of here, a community that came to be known as Nauvoo. For a time the Mormons thrived in Illinois. Nauvoo grew rapidly and once reached a population of 15,000. It was twice as big as Chicago, now the nation's second largest city.

But there was resentment and mistrust of the new religion, which Smith had organized in 1830 at Fayette, N. Y. Bitterness smoldered for a time, then spawned violence.

The "anti-Mormons" organized a

Navy, Mrs. Roberta Vaughn, Harrisburg, and Dennis Farris at home; one brother, T. J. Dillard, Eldorado; two sisters, Mrs. Lola Reid, Eldorado, Mrs. Ruth Smith, Harrisburg, and Mrs. Sara Hedger, Eldorado, and five grandchildren.

21 American Nations to Study Conflict

In Security Council Lodge Warning Comes After Soviet Veto

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UP)—The anti-Communist invasion of Guatemala passed today from the United Nations Security Council to nations of the Western Hemisphere with a sharp-spoken American warning to Russia to "stay out of this hemisphere."

Russia used its veto for the 61st time on a U. N. plan to refer the Guatemala question to the 21-nation Organization of American States and drew a scathing denunciation from U. S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr.

Even Guatemala conceded the only hope of action was through the OAS, which was organized at the recent meeting of North, Central and South American foreign ministers at Caracas, Venezuela.

The OAS prepared to investigate the revolt despite the rejection of the plan by Soviet Delegate Semyon K. Tsarapkin at the first Sunday meeting of the council since the June 25, 1950 session on the invasion of South Korea.

Lodge said the veto by Russia could lead only to the conclusion that "the Soviet Union has got designs on the American hemisphere."

"I say to you, representative of the Soviet Union," he said "Stay out of this hemisphere and don't try to start your plans and your conspiracies over here."

Dr. Eduardo Castillo-Arriola, Guatemala's chief delegate, said he found encouragement, however, in the unanimous adoption by the Security Council of a French resolution calling for "the immediate termination of any action likely to cause bloodshed" in Guatemala and requesting "all members of the U. N. to abstain from giving any assistance to any such action."

"The security council must send the resolution adopted tonight to all the members of the U. N., and especially to Honduras and Nicaragua, so that these governments will take very strong measures, we hope, to avoid helping the invaders, and then close the Honduran frontier," Castillo said.

The Guatemala debate, which consumed four hours and 50 minutes brought these other developments:

1. Guatemala charged that American airmen bombed cities in the Central American country Sunday.

2. Guatemala denied that it had accused the United States, Honduras or Nicaragua of "connivance in the anti-Communist invasion."

3. Guatemala charged that it was victim of a campaign "started by the United Fruit Company and other monopolies" to "prepare the climate for open intervention in the domestic affairs" of the country.

4. Russia charged that the "armed intervention" in Guatemala was prepared by the United States "because many American senators and responsible officials of the State Department have material personal interests in the United Fruit Company."

Dale, Medley Asks Dismissal Of Indictments

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill. (UP)—Three Southern Illinois labor leaders today filed petitions for dismissal of extortion indictments against them.

The defendants, Evan R. Dale, Stanley Medley and John J. (Tiny) Kristies, filed the motions for dismissal and other relief in the U. S. District Court here.

Dale, czar of the laborers union in Southern Illinois, asked for a bill of particulars and severance in the indictment charging him and Medley, AFL Operating Engineers' business agent, with extorting $5,000 from an Evansville, Ind., contractor.

Medley asked the government for a bill of particulars.

In another motion, Dale and Kristies sought a bill of particulars and severance in the indictment charging them and Lloyd (Cockle) Watson with conspiring to extort $33,000 from a Chicago pipeline construction firm.

Republican Communists--'Who's Who'--Refugees
And More Refugees--GE Lights Fuse Under Reds

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Richard Harkness, NBC commentator, got a telephone call from an irate woman listener the other evening.

He had just finished a broadcast in which he had said that Senator McCarthy might be doing a disservice to the Eisenhower administration if he did not report immediately to Central Intelligence Director Allen Dulles or FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover any knowledge he might have about Communists in the government.

The woman listener said she disagreed, and that Senator McCarthy should not turn over the names.

Harkness started to reason with her. "Look!" he said. "You don't think Allen Dulles would keep any known Communists in CIA, do you?"

"I certainly do," she said. "Patiently, Harkness, tried again. 'You don't think President Eisenhower would keep any Communists working for him, do you?' he asked. 'The President would fire them immediately,' he assured her.

And then, to Mr. Harkness, bawling ears there came back the reply, "Not if they were Republican Communists."

ARMY PRIVATE G. David Schine and Atomic Scientist J. Robert Oppenheimer both use the same amount of space to list their accomplishments and biographical data in "Who's Who" — 19 lines. Dr. Oppenheimer's sketch says simply: "Director, laboratory, Los Alamos, N. M., that perfected the atomic bomb, 1943-45 — chem. gen. adv. com. AEC 1947-53." He leaves out the fact that he was awarded the U. S. Medal for Merit for that work.

Private Schine lists his principal accomplishments as: "Advisor spl. asst. atty. gen. U. S., in charge subversive activities, 1952, assisted investigation Communist infiltration into UN; chief cons. Senate Permanent Subcom. on Investigations, Com. on Govt. Operations, since January, 1953." Committee records show Roy M. Cohn as the chief counsel.

FIFTY NETHERLANDERS, refugees from last year's disastrous floods, are scheduled to arrive in New York June 25. This will be the first sizable group of European refugees to come to America under the Refugee Relief Act of 1953, signed last August.

The program calls for admission to the U. S. of 200,000 refugees before Dec. 31, 1956. To date only 53 refugees have actually arrived in this country under the new law.

The program got under way to a slow start because of the necessity for issuing new regulations, setting up a staff to handle applications, getting security clearances under the McCarran-Walter immigration act, and issuing visas.

ON ANOTHER immigration front, the Intergovernmental Committee for European Migration, headed by former U. S. Ambassador Hugh Gibson, reports that since February, 1952, when it first began operations, over 220,000 European refugees from communism have been aided in finding new homes in non-Communist countries.

The number emigrating in May was 13,560, a new monthly high.

GENERAL ELECTRIC Co. has taken the lead in suspending employees who refuse to answer questions of plant security officers or who invoke the Fifth amendment before congressional investigating committees. To date, 20 G. E. employees have been dropped under this program.

The rule is that any employee who fails to answer questions about alleged past or present connections with subversive organizations is suspended for 90 days. If within that time the employee does not clear his record, he is discharged. Most of the 20 so far suspended under this program have now been discharged.

One noteworthy fact about these 20 is that none of them was working on classified, or secret government defense contracts at the time he was suspended. All were on straight commercial work, where no security clearance is required.

No one can work on a defense contract or have access to secret

346,770 Gov't Workers in Illinois

SPRINGFIELD — The Illinois Taxpayers Federation today reported there was a total of 346,770 employees of federal, state and local governments in Illinois in October, 1953.

The federation said this is 15,645 more government employees than there were in the state in 1950. It said the increase includes 14,396 local, 632 state and 707 federal employees.

In a breakdown of the local government increase, the federation said 10,547 were school district employees, 4,336 were county workers, and 71 were special district employees.

Only city government payroll numbers declined, with a drop of 648.

The taxpayers federation said the number of government workers in 1953 equaled the 1950 combined populations of Peoria, Rockford, East St. Louis, Bloomington and Kankakee.

$500,000 Blaze At Vincennes

VINCENNES, Ind. (AP) — A near-downtown fire at the Satter-Morgan Hardware Co. was brought under control early today after doing damage estimated unofficially at $500,000.

The blaze, described by firemen as "spectacular," swept through a two-story brick building and destroyed large stocks of tools, appliances, paints and other goods. Flames were spotted on the second floor at 8:30 p. m. Sunday and spread quickly through most of the building.

The entire Vincennes fire department, including men off duty, fought the blaze past midnight. Hundreds of spectators gathered as flames shot skyward.

Included in stock of the wholesale and retail firm were small arms ammunition and bottled gas. Firemen said they did little damage.

Cause of the blaze was not determined.

Collier's Tells of Kroger Tests for Quality Control

Ever test the bite resistance of a jelly bean? Or the crumb potential of a cookie? Those are just two of the hundreds of thousands of quality-control tests carried on each year by the Kroger Food Foundation in Cincinnati, says a picture feature article in the June 25 issue of Collier's magazine.

Products sold in Kroger stores go through an elaborate testing operation at the Food Foundation. More than 600,000 sample lots of food are tested each year in the laboratories, the test kitchen, and by a taste panel. Two hundred pounds of tin cans, alone, are emptied in tests each day.

Modern food manufacturers and distributors, the article explains, make certain food is pure enough to eat, tasty enough to enjoy, and stable enough to travel well and

Miss Martha Ann White, Lt. Joseph Allard Rude Wed in Double Ring Ceremony

Mrs. Joseph Allard Rude

Before an arrangement of white flowers, greenery and candelabra, bedecking an altar of white, Miss Martha Ann White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Lowe White, 1400 McHoney street, Eldorado, became the bride of Lt. Joseph Allard Rude, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl William Rude, Harrisburg. The double ring ceremony, performed by Elder T. Leo Dodd, took place at 4:30 p. m. Saturday, June 19, in the Eldorado First Methodist church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was preceded to the altar by the flower girl, little Carleen Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson, who carried a white flower basket and sprinkled rose petals in her path.

She was dressed in a lovely gown of imported rosepoint lace designed with an off-shoulder yoke with insert of illusion and long sleeves coming to a point over the hands. The voluminous skirt was fashioned with a double flounce of lace and tulle extending into a cotillion train, cascaded with lace and tulle. She carried a white Bible covered with phalaenopsis, orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Linda Capel Rude, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor, and Mrs. Edmund Higgins, sister of the bride, Evansville, Ind., was matron of honor. The bride's matron was Mrs. Charles N. White, and Karen Sue White, sister of the bride was junior bridesmaid.

All four wore identical dresses fashioned with tulle over mint green taffeta skirts, a white lace bodice, scoop neckline and cap sleeves. They also wore bandeaus of matching taffeta covered with tulle and carried cascade bouquets of deep purple asters and ivy.

Charles Abrom White was ring bearer.

The bridegroom chose as best man his father, Carl William Rude. Groomsmen were Charles N. White, brother of the bride, Lt. William B. Harper, Ft. Benning, Ga., and Lt. George E. Perrin, Ft. Sill, Okla.

Tom Evans, William R. Brown and John Richard Small, all of Harrisburg, served as ushers.

Robert Beltz, soloist, Paducah, Ky., sang "I Love Thee" and at the close of the ceremony, "The Lord's Prayer." He was accompanied by Mrs. Lou Beck, organist.

Report Packard Will be Surviving Firm in Merger

DETROIT (AP)—Ward's Automotive Reports said today the Studebaker-Packard merger reportedly will leave Packard as the surviving company.

The merger is due to be announced in New York Tuesday barring any last minute difficulties.

The trade paper said it has been reported 14-million-odd shares of Packard stock outstanding would be exchanged in a reverse split of one for five.

Ward's said terms of the agreement would leave headquarters of the new company in Detroit with operating management under the Packard leadership of James J. Nance, Packard president.

Ward's also said the merger of the last two "independents" in the auto field reportedly would be the start of efforts to join the new firm with the recently formed American Motors, which was set up by a merger of Nash and Hudson.

State Police Seize Gambling Equipment at Colp

SPRINGFIELD — State police confiscated gambling equipment at night spots near Aurora, North Pekin and Colp Saturday night and early Sunday.

Police Chief Phil M. Brown said the places raided were an alleged bookmaking place on Ill. 31 near Aurora; the Amvets Club at North Pekin; and the New City Club, Owl Club and Glass Bar Club at Colp, a village in Williamson county.

Capt. Walter Eichen, Du Quoin, said blackjack and dice tables were confiscated at all three clubs in Colp.

Those charged as owners of the three places were Mary Calcaterra, New City Club; John Oglesby, Owl Club; and E. R. Narenda and J. Calcaterra, Glass Bar Club.

STREET ROD

by Henry Gregor Felsen
Copyright 1953 by Henry Gregor Felsen. Printed by arrangement with the publishers, Random House, Inc. Distributed by NEA Service.

THE STORY: Ricky Madison, 16, used money he earned to buy an old car which he wants to transform into a hot rod, but he finds that there are many things he didn't count on and the idea has netted nothing but trouble so far. His friends help him out by giving him old parts.

showed him how their rods could dig in. Ricky loaded the tires they had brought into the trunk of his car. He was about to drive away when he got out of the car again and went into the house. His father and mother were in the kitchen.

"Did you see what the guys brought me?" Ricky began. "Four tires and a lot of other stuff."

VIII
When Jerry, Sherm and Chub left, spinning their wheels as they

"That was nice of them," his mother said. It had been decided not to make an issue out of Ricky's action.

Ricky turned to his father. "I've got a question, Dad."

"What?"

"I want to drive over to Merle's to change tires, but I don't know if I should, without insurance. You never know what might happen."

Ricky's father looked pleased. "I like the way you're starting off, Ricky. I'm glad you came to me with that question. As a matter of fact, I've already filled out your application. You can sign it now, and you'll be covered."

"That's swell," Ricky said. "Real swell."

"It's on the living room desk."

While Ricky went into the living room to sign, his father and mother exchanged glances.

"Seems to be working out fine," his father said.

Ricky's mother nodded without much enthusiasm. "It's his first day. We'll see what happens after three months."

Merle Connor saw Ricky drive up to the garage and waited for him to come inside. Merle had all his arguments ready about why he couldn't take back the car.

"You bought the car fair and square," Merle said. "I don't see how I can take it back."

"I don't want to bring it back," Ricky said down on the running board of a truck. "Everybody thinks I got a junker. I want to prove I didn't, and I've got a plan. If I came down here in my spare time and helped you around the garage, would you let me use your tools so I could work on my car? And maybe give me some advice?"

"I don't know," Merle said, searching for a cigarette.

"I learn pretty fast," Ricky said. "And of course I'd buy all my parts from you."

"Well," Merle sat down and pushed his greasy red cap back on his head. "Would you want to keep the place clean and change tires and stuff like that?"

"Anything you say," Ricky promised. "I've got some tires to put on the coupe now. You can have the old ones if you want them."

While Merle thought, Ricky outlined his plan for rebuilding the coupe, selling it, and starting over again, with the idea of having a regular custom shop.

"Fixing up old cars would only be the beginning," Ricky said. "A guy who pays $5000 bucks for a big car gets one that's exactly like all the others. If we were set up to make it the only one of its kind, I'll bet we'd get a lot of customers who wanted their cars to look special."

"Kid," Merle said slowly, squinting at his cigarette. "I think you got something. You come in and help me, and I'll let you use my tools. And if you sell that car and make some money, I'll come in with you as a partner."

Ricky wasn't aware that his parents had stopped eating and were watching him. His left arm was on the table, curved protectively around the dish of pudding before him, his face was directly over the dish, almost low enough to touch. His spoon scraped noisily as he dug after the last few lines of chocolate.

"Wouldn't it be easier to eat the dish, Ricky?"

"All right," Ricky said wearily. "I'll be refined. He sat up straight and tried to look prim.

"Don't get offended," his father said. "The reason we want you to keep your face out of your dish is so we can see what you look like. The only time we see you any more is at meals."

"I'm busy," Ricky said. "Working at the grocery store all day, and then on my car at night. If I don't have much free time. If I can be excused, I'd like to go now. I promised Merle I'd be down right after supper."

Ricky's parents exchanged glances. It was time they talked to the boy.

"We were just wondering, Ricky," Mr. Madison said, "if it's such a good idea for you to spend so much time with Merle Connor."

"What's wrong with Merle?" Ricky demanded, getting on the defensive. "He's an older man, and married, and..."

"You and Dad are married and older than I am," Ricky said. "And you want me to stay around with you."

"Don't be ridiculous," Ricky's father said in an annoyed tone. "And don't make fun of your mother."

"I'm not being ridiculous and I'm not making fun of Mom," Ricky said loudly. "I don't see why you and Mom have to pick on Merle just because he's good enough to let me use his place to work on my car. And help me, too. That's more than a lot of people have done."

"That part is all right, Ricky. We don't mind your spending some time on your car. But when you spend all your time playing with it, it's time we stepped in."

Chou is Alone At Geneva as Diplomats Leave

GENEVA — Communist Chinese Premier Chou En-Lai was a lonely man today.

The departure of British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov and U. S. Undersecretary of State Walter Bedell Smith left Chou without a single major diplomat for conferences.

In addition, new French Premier Pierre Mendes-France postponed his expected trip to Geneva and gave no indication when he will arrive. Eden and Smith were reported to have urged Mendes-France not to rush to Geneva.

Diplomats said an immediate trip might imply that Mendes-France was suing for peace and thus make the Communists all the more unreasonable in their demands.

Some sources suggested Chou was remaining in Geneva to watch the new French premier's negotiations with Communist Indochinese Vice Premier Pham Van Dong.

The departure of the other diplomats leaves the way open for direct negotiations between the French and Indochinese Communists on a cease fire. Both the Communists and Mendes-France have favored this approach, but the United States opposes it.

American officials always have feared that France's position is too weak in Indochina for her not to get the worst of any deal she has made alone. By joining the discussions, the United States hoped to strengthen France's bargaining position.
